

THE CITY ELECTION

MAYOR DUKES RE-ELECTED BY A LARGE MAJORITY.

Alderman Lathrop and Weeks Re-Elected — Wannamaker, Jennings and Bryant Elected Aldermen. Smith and Sain Tie.

The municipal election passed off quietly Tuesday, resulting in the re-election of Mayor Dukes by a large majority, and the re-election also of Alderman Lathrop and Weeks to the Aldermanic Board. Capt. W. W. Wannamaker, and Messrs. R. F. Bryant and R. H. Jennings were also elected to the Aldermanic Board. Col. W. G. Smith and Mr. W. M. Sain tied for the sixth place on the Aldermanic Board, which will necessitate another election to determine who the sixth man shall be. This second election will be open to all who choose to enter the race, but it is more than probable that Col. Smith and Mr. Sain will be the only candidates, as they each received 205 votes in Tuesday's election. The following is the number of votes received by each candidate:

| For Mayor.       |     |
|------------------|-----|
| J. W. H. Dukes   | 290 |
| Dr. D. D. Salley | 104 |
| For Aldermen.    |     |
| W. W. Wannamaker | 280 |
| R. H. Jennings   | 264 |
| R. F. Bryant     | 255 |
| Abial Lathrop    | 208 |
| J. X. Weeks      | 206 |
| W. G. Smith      | 205 |
| W. M. Sain       | 205 |
| Geo. V. Zeigler  | 169 |
| I. W. Bowman     | 165 |
| Phillip Rich     | 145 |
| J. W. Josey      | 136 |
| N. W. Wertz      | 129 |
| Dan Robinson     | 21  |

The Aldermen so far elected are all prominent business men and the interests of the city are safe in their hands. Capt. W. W. Wannamaker, who heads the ticket, is secretary and treasurer of the Orange Mills, of which he is part owner. Mr. R. H. Jennings is a member of the firm of Jennings & Smoak, wholesale grocers and jobbers. Mr. R. F. Bryant is the efficient cashier of the Orangeburg Bank. Abial Lathrop, Esq., is a prominent member of the Orangeburg Bar and First Assistant United States District Attorney, and Mr. J. X. Weeks is a member of the firm of Fahey & Weeks, who do a large general mercantile business.

Messrs. Lathrop and Weeks are now members of the Aldermanic Board, where the former has served the city most faithfully for many years, and the latter for the past two years. They are the only members of the old board of aldermen who so far have pulled through. Capt. Wannamaker and Messrs. Jennings and Bryant are new members so far as the present council is concerned. Mr. Jennings was a member of a former council, but neither Capt. Wannamaker or Mr. Bryant has ever served the city as aldermen before. Taken as a whole, the new board is a strong one.

House Partially Burned.

The home of Mr. J. H. Ahrens, corner of Doyle and St. John streets, was discovered to be on fire about two o'clock Tuesday morning. The fire burned rapidly and it was with difficulty that any thing was saved in the rear part of the house where the fire originated. Some of the furniture in the front part of the house was saved. The firemen did some good work. They prevented the fire from totally destroying Mr. Ahrens' house, and did not even let it warm good the house of Mr. J. E. Glover, which is next door. Mr. Ahrens had $1,700 insurance on the house and $1,300 on his household goods, which will not cover his loss.

Doubly Bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Stokes has been called on to pass through deep waters of sorrow. On last Sunday they lost a bright little boy of four years and a little girl of about six weeks old. Two in one day is hard to bear, but God will heal their broken hearts if they will only trust Him. The two little ones were laid to rest in the same casket. The doubly bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends.

JOSEPH JEFFERSON.

Now Starring in "The Henrietta."

"THE HENRIETTA."

Please Columbia Audience on Tuesday Evening.—Here Tonight.

"The Henrietta" which is played in this city at the Academy of Music tonight was played in Columbia on Tuesday evening and greatly pleased the theatre goers of that place. The following is an extract from the writup given by the State the next morning:

"The two scions of a noble sire are very capable actors, as has been proved on former visits to Columbia. William W. Jefferson took the well known part of Bertie, the Lamb, a role created by the late Stuart Robinson. Young Jefferson's facial resemblance to his father was never more marked, the blonde wig lending the older heads in the audience a memory of that other blonde wig of Bob Akers in "The Rivals." Mr. Joseph Jefferson, Jr., was excellent as Nick Vanalystyne, the king of "the Street." Mr. John L. Wooderson, who has been with the Jefferson companies for years, supporting the dead dean of American dramatic art for a long period, was in the cast last night. He is a veteran actor with fine technique. Mr. George Holland as the clergyman also deserves especial mention."

Elloree Notes.

HOLD COTTON.

Louisiana Governor Believes Crop Will Be Short and Price High.

A dispatch from Baton Rouge, La., says the following statement has been issued by Governor Sanders:

"To the Cotton Growers of Louisiana."

"It is evident that the cotton crops of the South will be short this year, and especially the Louisiana crop. It is also evident that if the crop is rushed to market and sold as fast as ginned a small price will necessarily obtain, while gradual, slow marketing of crop will secure better prices. The farmers should therefore sell slowly and just as mills need it, selling only when the price is high and withdrawing their cotton from sale entirely on all depressions. This plan of marketing should be followed by every cotton grower of the South."

Quite Sensitive.

Joseph Jefferson, now starring in "The Henrietta" is quite sensitive about unnecessary noise on the stage during performances. Not long ago, a couple of the stage hands, who had been working very hard sat down near the back to rest. They were breathing very heavily. This noise, slight as it was, annoyed Mr. Jefferson who was about to go on the stage for a long scene. He asked his brother William, his co-star, who happens to be very witty, to go over and stop that noise. Willie's answer simply staggered his brother, who said: "Why, Joe, I would have to answer to the law if I stopped their breathing."

Jumped from Train.

On last Saturday night on the evening train going to Columbia a man jumped from the train while running at full speed just before the train reached Felders. The affair was reported at this place and a party was sent back to see if he was hurt, but no trace of him was found.
